Youth's condition upgraded, man arraigned on charges

A 16-year-old Hoopeston youth stabbed in the head last week was upgraded to fair condition over the weekend.

The boy, at Carle Foundation Hospital, Urbana, was in serious condition last week.

The youth, who police are not identifying pending further investigation, was stabbed early Thursday morning following a fight at 607 W. Washington.

Police arrested Robert S. Akers, 19, of that address. Akers was arraigned Friday in Vermilion County Circuit Court on two charges of aggravated battery, both Class 3 felonies.

Phone:

(217) 283-9348

Akers is being held on $20,000 bond. To be released, he must post 10 percent, as well as have no contact with the juvenile, siad a court spokesperson.

Akers will have a preliminary hearing Oct. 30.
